

Chalet Cinq Moutons

Unique chalet for 16 with sauna, hot tub and amazing garden

Explore the fabulous garden at this stunning Swiss chalet with hot tub, sauna and gym

Chalet Cinq Moutons ...

The incredible multi-level garden is one of the highlights of this stunning luxury chalet in Saleinaz, Praz de Fort, in the Valais region of Switzerland. Meandering paths will take you on a journey of discovery, past sunny terraces, ponds, waterfalls and along a sculpture trail, created by the owner. At the bottom of the garden is a river which flows from a glacier.

If you're visiting in the summer, the garden is just the start of your exploration - wonderful hikes and bike trails start from the door of Chalet Cinq Moutons, and there are watersports and swimming at nearby Champex Lac.

In the winter there is skiing at Champex and La Fouly, as well as the larger resort of Verbier, which can be reached by car and cable car.

The chalet itself is just as impressive as the garden. There are great views in every direction - of the garden, the valley and the mountains - and walls of glass make the most of them.

There's a gym with a sauna and shower, where you can relax or work out, as the mood takes you. There's also a sunken indoor hot tub, with wonderful views over that impressive garden and mountains.
